RULES AND DETAILS

Procedure for the Bride and Groom

Wedding date is confirmed when the deposit has been received by the church office. Pre-wedding meeting(s) are arranged with the pastor and organist for the purpose of planning the ceremony. Arrangements for music, photography, flowers, candles, caterer, etc. are the responsibility of the bride and groom.

Wedding Rehearsal

A rehearsal time is available the day before the ceremony or an agreed time and date. For Sunday ceremonies, the rehearsal will take place on the preceding Friday or on Saturday, if the church is not otherwise engaged. Even though the night or day of your rehearsal is usually very busy, we encourage you and your entire wedding party to be here present and on time. Please have checks for the pastor, hospitality assistant and organist at the time of the rehearsal.

Wedding Hospitality Assistant

As a service to you and the wedding party, we provide a wedding hospitality assistant to help ensure that your wedding goes smoothly. The assistant will be able to answer questions about our building and aid the wedding party in various ways. The assistant will be available one half hour before the rehearsal and one hour for the rehearsal. The day of the wedding the assistant will be available for two hours before the wedding and one hour after the wedding for photos. Additional time is $25 per hour with arrangements to be made in advance.

Opening of the Church

The church sanctuary and/or social hall will be opened for the bride and groom before the wedding date is booked and as needed thereafter for the florist for planning purposes. At that time the sanctuary and the social hall may be decorated and food may be brought in. Changes or alternative opening times are possible but must be coordinated with the wedding hospitality assistant.

License

The wedding license is obtained by the bride and/or groom and turned over to the minister on the day of the rehearsal. You may obtain your marriage license at the Walworth County Clerk's Office: 100 W. Walworth Street/ Elkhorn, WI 53121/ phone: (262) 741-4241 / fax: (262) 741-4287 / web: www.co.walworth.wi.us/CountyClerk/Website/requirements\_ml.htm Apply between 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Monday thru Friday. Closed Saturday and Sunday. You must contact the County Clerk's Office there are no exceptions.

Music

Please inform us at the initial consultation whether you will be using our organist or making other arrangements.

Photography

Flash photography is permitted before and after the ceremony. Photography during the ceremony is limited to one designated photographer in order not to impact the elegance of the occasion. A video camera that makes no discernible noise and requires no lights is allowed, if desired, at the back of the church for recording the entire ceremony. The ceremony begins when the groom, his attendants, and the minister take their places at the front of the church. The ceremony ends after the bride and groom are pronounced husband and wife. It is advisable to limit photography after the ceremony to one hour.

Flowers

Flowers, ribbons, etc. may be used to decorate, but they may not be attached with tape, glue, thumbtacks, push pins, nails, etc. Areas to be decorated, and method of attachment, subject to approval of the wedding hospitality assistant. No decoration may be attached to the cross above the altar. It is the bridal party's responsibility to make arrangements for all flowers. We do ask that no loose greenery be used. All wedding decorations should be removed immediately following the service. Flowers left at the church will be used for church services and then delivered to housebound friends and members of the church. (aisle runners – 50 feet are available from florists).

Decorations

Unity candles are to be provided by the wedding party, and all candles used must be drip less. Placement of candles is subject to approval. The church will provide candles for the candelabra and altar.

Rice

No rice, birdseed, sparkles, confetti, etc. may be thrown on the church premises. You may substitute flower petals or bubbles for use outside the building.

Receptions

The wedding party will provide all food, dishes and table linens. Refrigeration space may be used for food and flowers, as it is available.

Guest Officiants

You are welcome to provide your own officiant for your wedding. The wedding hospitality assistant must be present for your rehearsal and ceremony.

Dress

Rooms are available for the purpose of dressing at the church. Arrangements can be made at the time of your initial consultation. We ask that you leave the rooms as neat as you found them.

Tobacco and Alcohol

Smoking is not permitted in any part of the church building. The use of alcoholic beverages is not permitted in any part of the church building or on the church grounds. The bride and groom shall be responsible for sharing this policy with all members of the wedding party.

Accessibility

First Congregational Church is handicap accessible. There is an elevator that provides access to the sanctuary and to the downstairs bathroom and fellowship hall.

At First Congregational Church you can have the wedding of your dreams in glorious Lake Geneva.

On a quiet street in the heart of Lake Geneva, First Congregational UCC has been celebrating Weddings for over a century. With room for 225 guests — yet with the intimacy of a small village chapel — couples from all over have formalized their vows in romantic wedding ceremonies at this historic church in Lake Geneva. If you would like a thoughtful and well-prepared Lake Geneva wedding ceremony, we cordially invite you to visit the church and see for yourself; how its timeless elegance and historic charm can help you create your special day.
